

Caribbean Week of Agriculture

"Strengthening agriculture for a healthier future in the region."

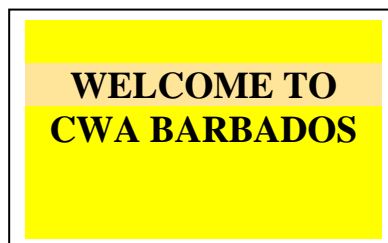

Barbados
8th-12th
October

Dear Delegate,

Greetings!!

As you prepare to join us in Barbados for the Caribbean Week of Agriculture (CWA) 2018, here is some important information regarding airport transfers and transportation:

- The Ministry of Agriculture and Food Security will provide transportation to take you from the airport to your hotel.
- After you have cleared immigration and customs and you exit the Arrivals Hall, please identify yourself to an official holding this sign:

- During your stay with us, transportation will also be provided from the official CWA Hotels to the Conference venues, as well as to the venues for the tradeshow and various events.

- On the day of your departure, you will be collected 2½ hours before the estimated departure time on your travel itinerary. For example, if your departure flight is 13th October at 5:30 pm, your transport will collect you at 3:00 pm from your hotel reception. Please note that this will not be facilitated after October 14, 2018

- You will receive full details on departure times and locations for buses to various events when you receive your registration kits.
- Event Badges for delegates will also be provided with your information kits.

We look forward to hosting you in our beautiful Island and to showcasing our cultural and culinary delights, as well as our Barbados hospitality, at the various events we have planned for you.
